(From the Calgary Herald.)

Our readers will have learned with indignant astonishment of the extraordinary proceedings in the North-West Legislature, resulting in a combination to disfranchise one third or more of all the constituencies of the Territories. This has been brought about by a compact among certain members of the Legislature, for which, if the game were worth the candle, those members might be impeached. A "King" has been formed, and in a secret caucus its members have pledged themselves to one another to silence the voices of one fourth the members of the House and to prevent their participation in any legislation whatever. Mr. Haultain has announced the ring programme and yesterday's proceedings show how it is being carried out. No greater act of terrorism was ever suggested by Czar or Sultan or announced with greater callousness. No more scandalous invasion of the people's rights was ever attempted or carried out. When members of a Legislature can rise in their places and announce that they will not allow any one of a given number of the members to carry a resolution or a bill through the House, when they declare by their votes that no act of legislation will be permitted that is proposed by the qualified representatives of a body of Territorial constituencies, when they declare publicly that they will not consider the merits of bills or measures proposed, but will vote them down irrespective of their merits, without considering whether they are necessary in the public interest or not, then we have reached a state of things little short of revolution.

Perhaps Mr. Haultain and his ring will tell the public by what authority they do these things which are wholly unprecedented in British legislation and which carry us back to the days when men paid on the scaffold the penalty of violation of popular rights less odious than this tyranny at Regina? Were the members whom they are attempting to silence not elected under the same laws as themselves? Were they not chosen by the same classes of electors? Are their qualifications not as sound? Are their rights not as firmly secured? Are they not as fully the representatives of the people? Then where do Messrs. Haultain and the ring acquire their superior rights? From what constitutional source do they obtain those powers which enable them to say that because they differ from their associates on certain points of public policy, they will absolutely deprive the constituencies which send the latter to the Legislature of all influence and all representation in the Legislature,—that they will practically disfranchise these Territorial constituencies?

This attack on the individual rights of members by these proceedings, the attack on the rights and privileges of one fourth of all the constituencies of the Northwest the attack on our constitutional system, the conspiracy against popular rights which this involves, the un-British, unfair insolent and despotic conduct which here stands revealed in all its offensive nakedness, are well fitted to make all moderate reasonable men in Canada ask themselves "Whither are we drifting?" There can be no manner of doubt that if this illegal and scandalous attitude of one section of a Legislature towards another section of the Legislature and towards the people whom the latter represent, were attempted in any other Canadian Parliament or in the Parliament of Great Britain, the electors would find a way of bringing the would-be tyrants to condign punishment. As it is, those persons will find there is a public opinion in the Territories which will make itself felt even at Regina, and which they cannot afford to treat with contempt. There is here in the Northwest a respect for popular rights so outraged by these men, which they will do well to take into their serious consideration. They must understand that they can not play such pranks with the popular liberties without punishment. They can not be the part of Czar or Sultan,—they can not bowstring their opponents while they destroy the rights of the people they represent—without being brought to a sharp accounting. For such an unheard of attack on the people by silencing the electors' representatives and attempting to paralyze useful legislation, Mr. Haultain and his fellows should apologize to the people of the Territories with the least possible delay, and that apology should be as ample and as comprehensive as English language can make it.

TELEGRAPHIC.

(By Special Telegraph.)

REGINA, Nov. 6.

Mr. Neff asked leave to introduce his Ordinance respecting Farmers' Institutes.

Mr. Betts made another appeal to the House, urging that personal feelings should, in the interests of agriculture, be dropped and pressed upon the Assembly the importance of allowing the introduction of this Bill.

Leave to introduce the Bill was eventually granted.

Dr. Brett's motion respecting the standing committees came up to-day.

Mr. Betts spoke for nearly an hour, and most ably presented the position occupied by His Honor's Advisory Council. He explained the cause of resignation last year, and announced his intention of remaining true to his principles and the interests of the Territories. In closing his remarks, Mr. Plaxton received the roasting his unpatriotic actions left him open to. The general opinion is that Mr. Betts let him down too easy.

The majority in the Assembly seemed to fear a fair discussion of the situation.

Every effort was made by Haultain and Cayley to prevent Dr. Brett's motion being introduced.

The Speaker ruled against their objections. They then turned their attention to making interruptions.

Your representative met them on open ground, and silenced their obstructions by calling attention to the inconsistencies of each of them. His illustration of Tweed's position of a year ago brought forth rounds of applause.

Dr. Brett to-day demanded of either Mr. Haultain or Cayley a straight statement of their reasons why they considered a violation of the Constitution had been made by himself and colleagues. It is needless to report that no reply was made.

Mr. Betts immediately took up the cue and dressed Haultain down for his many inconsistencies as a member of the Assembly.

Dr. Brett's speech on his motion respecting the composition of committees is generally considered one of his best efforts.

The junior member for Prince Albert has forced Plaxton to his feet, and strange to say, Mr. Plaxton at last voted that the committee of which he was a member sent in a wrong report. He now says that report must be reversed, and votes that the members of the Council must be on committees.

London, Oct. 27.—The clerical and royalist newspapers of Paris express great delight over the reception of the Count of Paris in Montreal, the former treating it as evidence that the fortunes of French loyalty and the church are in the past, and that the Canadian French have retained undiminished their loyalty to both.

Major Barttelot's brother has published a letter condemning the course of Mr. Stanley in making covert allusions to the Majors' conduct, while implying that it is in his power to make definite and serious charges. Mr. Barttelot expresses his belief that Stanley's reticence in the matter is due more to the timidity of the charges he darkly hints at than to the regard to the Majors family which he pretends to feel. Mr. Stanley is coming in for some pretty hard criticisms, for having committed himself to say as much as he has already said, and it is generally the opinion that his further pursuit of the unfortunate controversy can do him no good in the least.

FRIDAY, NOV. 7, 1890.

As might have been expected, the despicable and unprecedented attack upon the rights of the electors of this country, and the dangerous and scandalous proceedings of the majority or "combine" of members of the Legislative Assembly now in session at Regina has evoked much astonishment and just indignation among the people of this District.
This majority, which has shown such glaring disrespect for the electoral rights and interests of a portion of these Territories will, we venture to say, be taught in due time in a tangible manner that the disreputable and unlawful practices to which they have lent themselves will not be forgotten or go unpunished by those whom they have so vilely wronged.
The brazen statement made by Mr.
Cayley, when speaking to Secord's Bill, "That the majority had a right to and would vote down the present motion because the majority thought that the mover of it occupied a wrong position," places him and the clique whom he represents in a most unenviable light before intelligent and law-abiding people. For him as the mouthpiece of this shameless brood of law-defiers to declare from his place in the House that because the opinions of men elected by the people on precisely the same grounds as he and others had been elected and placed in their positions by the laws of Canada could not be brought into blind subservience to the wishes of the majority, was a good and sufficient reason why members of the minority should not be allowed to introduce and carry through the house any beneficial legislation, and more especially as in this case intended as it was as a protection to the widows and orphans of our land. To make such a declaration, we say, makes it painfully apparent that responsible government with men of the calibre of Messrs. Haultain, Cayley and others in representative positions would be little short of Russian despotism and would certainly seem to be about as hopeless a condition for the people of the N. W. T. to find themselves places in as could well be imagined. Mr. Betts, Capt.

Hoey, the members of the Advisory Board and their supporters may console themselves with the gratifying reflection that their manly, straightforward course throughout the whole of this detestable and outrageous conspiracy against electoral rights and the laws of our country has found favor not only with those who placed them in their present positions and the people generally of the Territories, but also in the minds of all right thinking men who have intelligently studied the situation.

In this issue we publish a full report of an Alberta opinion respecting the situation of public affairs at in Regina. From it our readers will judge that the situation is getting rather interesting. A rumor has reached here that Mr. Plaxton, having been appointed to the select committee to strike standing committees refused to allow Mr. Betts to be on any of the several committees appointed. Should this prove true the electors of this, one of the most important districts in the Territory, will demand a full and explicit explanation. Mr. Betts has taken his stand on the interpretation of the constitution as presented by the Minister of Justice. His position is strong. Three provisional districts are now, by majorities in Assembly, working for full responsible government, with our local Legislature situated at Regina. Mr. Betts objects to any such arrangement.
We admire the stand taken by our junior member, and await with interest a full report of the action he has taken on the questions which call forth so strong an article as we publish from Alberta.

distress in the United States:—
"St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 16.— Mayor Smith has received an appeal signed by A. E. Bartlett and other prominent citizens of Brown county South Dakota, saying: We solicit aid for the needy and destitute of this locality, caused by drought and crop failure during the past two years.
Wheat, oats, barley and vegetables we have none. Our fuel is gathered from the pastures; our clothing is thin and worn; our farms and stock are mortgaged to such an extent that no further loans can be secured on them.
We must have help, or many will suffer and some will perish." Canadians should ponder over this accumulating evidence of agricultural un-success across the border.

GENERAL NEWS.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Oct. 27.—Lethbridge has been en fete to-day over her railroad celebration—the formal opening of the Canada & Montana line. Flags and bunting were everywhere displayed.

QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—The Comte de Paris and suite arrived here at three o'clock this afternoon. An immense crowd had assembled at the station to greet the eminent visitors. As the train steamed into the depot the crowd cheered wildly and the Laval students sung several patriotic songs.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—Major Guy has put in an application for the position of warden at Stony Mountain penitentiary. Sir Foster's stock seems to be in the ascendant.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—An evening paper says one of the biggest deals in lumber and lumber limits ever made in Canada will shortly be consummated by the purchase by E. W. Rathbun & Co., of Desonto, of the mills and timber limits on the Trent river of David and Allan Gilmore.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—George Johnson, Dominion statistician, is now preparing a pamphlet giving figures to show the importance of Australia as an outlet for our trade. It is got up on the same principle as the recent pamphlet respecting our trade with West Indies.

Kinmount, Ont. Oct. 27.—C. J. Smith's sawmill with store houses, boarding house, supply store, two thousand cords of wood and twenty thousand ties were destroyed by an incendiary fire; the loss is twelve thousand dollars.

Calgary, Oct. 27.—Thirteen cars of cattle, loaded here this afternoon by the Northwest Cattle Company, left to night for Waukegan, Ont. It is understood that more will be forwarded the first week in November.

Cornwall, Oct. 27.—A youth named Chas. Winder was killed at Godfrey yesterday through falling from a load of hay and alighting on the point of a pitchfork, which passed through the lower part of his body.

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—At eight o'clock this evening the force of the Western Union office, consisting of thirty-five operators, walked out in a body, leaving only two clerks to do their work. The men are all members of the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers recently organized here.

Boston, Oct. 27.—The extremely high tide of the past two days has caused much damage along the line of the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn railroad. After reaching East Boston the tunnel train had to plough through about a foot of water, and on emerging nothing but water met the eye.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 27.—The city council has resolved to accept the Dominion Government's offer to sell the Carleton branch railway to the city for $50,000. The city will turn the branch over to the Canadian Pacific railway.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—At a meeting of the city council to-night, the resignation of Alderman Boustead was accepted, and a scheme for the re-distribution of the city into eight wards, instead of thirteen, as at present, was adopted.

Orillia, Oct. 27.—While Charles Campbell, of North Orillia, was driving this afternoon the team ran away, throwing him out of the wagon and killing him.

Anthville, Oct. 27.—Geo. Anna Bell, a veteran of 1812, is dead, 100. At the last general election he drove fifteen miles to vote for the Reform candidate.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—The body of Robert Douglas, a storeman of Kingston, living in North Toronto, was found floating in the day to-day.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—Theodore Slayton & Co., manufacturers and importers, have assigned. The liabilities are $25,000.

Halifax, Oct. 27.—Steward Brown, of the steamer Electra, was drowned last night.

London, Oct. 27.—The Russian police are showing more than usual activity in hunting down the Nihilists and arrests are being made by wholesale in St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Oleska.

London, Oct. 27.—John Burns, the socialist labor leader, is free in his denunciation of the plan set forth in the paper of the Salvation Army's book of believing the prevailing distress and curing crime by emigration to the United States and British colonies.

Vienna, Oct. 27.—Prince Alexander of Battenburg, formerly ruler of Bulgaria, and now known as the Count of Horte-nau, has been gazetted as colonel in the Austrian Army under the latter name.

ELMIRA, N. Y. Oct. 27.—The jury in the Mrs. Ellenburg murder case to-day acquitted the woman. She killed her paramour, named Edwards, during a quarrel in her room, several months ago. Edwards had treated her shamefully and de-frauded her of a sum of money. The desperate woman shot him.

QUINCY, Ills., Oct. 27.—This city was started yesterday afternoon by a double tragedy which occurred on the crowded thoroughfare. Miss Lillie Booth, daughter of prominent parents of this city, while walking on Sixth street at two o'clock this afternoon met Daniel Price, a well-known business man, whom she accused of seducing her under promise of marriage. After a few words the woman shot Price in the region of the heart, death resulting an hour later. As soon as he was shot Price drew a revolver and fired at Miss Booth, the ball taking effect in her left shoulder, inflicting a serious wound. The death of Price was followed this morning by the death of Lillie E. Booth. The majority of the people are satisfied that Price was the betrayer of Booth. The inquest on both bodies will be held in the morning. Miss Booth was worth not less than $30,000 in her own name, was well educated and accomplished.

London, Oct. 27.—The Russian police are showing more than usual activity in hunting down the Nihilists and arrests are being made by wholesale in St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Oleska.

The French political journals are bringing their utmost pressure to bear upon the Government in an endeavor to induce the adoption of retaliatory measures against the United States for the restrictive operation of the McKinley bill upon French products. The Figaro, the most bitter of these journals, demands that the Government retaliate upon American insurance companies, of which there are many doing an enormous business in France.

The Tribune Publishing Co., Winnipeg presents a magnificent opportunity to obtain handsome and valuable premiums. In order to introduce THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE into thousands of new homes during the coming year, the publishers are offering very strong inducements to obtain subscribers. In addition to giving valuable premiums to those getting up clubs, a great word contest has been inaugurated thus affording every subscriber an opportunity to win a costly prize. To the person sending THE TRIBUNE, on or before January 15 next, the largest list of English words constructed from the letters contained in the two words, "THE WINNIPEG TRIBUNE" they will give a magnificent Cabinet Organ, valued at $245; to the person sending the second largest list they will give a splendid Sewing Machine worth $60; and to the person sending the third largest list they will give a complete set of Dickens' Works in 15 volumes. All competitors must forward, together with their list of words, $1 for THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, which will be sent for that sum from now on any time hereafter to the 1st of January, 1891. All those desiring to do so may themselves take part in the competition and have the paper sent to distant friends or correspondents. The word contest closes on January 15, 1891. THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE should be in every home in the Northwest, and is just the paper to send away to friends to keep them posted on the affairs and the progress of this country. Full rules governing the word contest and a complete list of club premiums are published in THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Send for sample copies. Address THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING Co., Winnipeg.

Mr. Geo. Baker, who has been absent on a pleasure tour for the past two months, returned home by Saturday's train.

As may be seen by posters and advertisements, tenders are asked for the erection of a building, etc. at the Police Barracks.

Mrs. Betts left by train on Thursday morning for Regina, where she will meet Mr. Betts, who is now there attending a sitting of the Assembly.

The Court for the trial of petty debt cases was held on Wednesday last. Only a few cases came up for hearing. Mr. Justice McGuire presided.

Rev. A. H. Wright, of Fort à la Corne came up to town on Monday. The reverend gentleman says there is considerable sickness in that locality, principally from colds.

R. B. Way, the jeweller, is now showing the most handsome, largest and best selected lot of silver and fancy glassware we have yet seen in the town. Call and see for yourself. Mr. Way will be glad to see you.

We received by last mail a copy of the Frederic Weekly's premium—a picture—"The Angelus." Their new story "Rex Barenhall's Career, or the mystery of the Blenheim Swamp," will commence on November 4th.

Thursday last being Thanksgiving Day services were held in all the churches in the town and district. At St. Albans, in the morning, the Ven. Archdeacon Geo. McKay preached to a large and appreciative congregation.

Ladies interested in hospital work are requested to attend a meeting at Mrs. Macdonald's on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, inst., at 3 o'clock p.m., to discuss ways and means of raising money for a general Hospital in Prince Albert.

The tea and coffee sold by F. C. Baker is the best. You should try it.

Mr. R. Onell left for Winnipeg by Wednesday morning's train. He goes to accept a position of trust in Stobart & Co.'s employ. Mr. Onell was a good citizen and made many warm friends while here, who all very much regret losing him. We wish him the best of luck in his new position.

Mr. T. J. Agnew received a letter this week from Mr. Betts in reference to the intended visit here of Miss. Knox, hoping Mr. Agnew and others would do their utmost to make the visit a success. Mr. Betts also stated to Mr. Agnew that he was endeavoring to arrange an excursion party of members of the House and others for the occasion.

Mr. S. W. Vanlaven's grist mill is now in full running order and doing good work. The mill is being taxed to its utmost capacity to keep pace with the demands of farmers in that neighborhood. We are pleased to know this, as Mr. Vanlaven deserves all encouragement possible in return for the untiring manner in which he worked to secure a flour mill in that locality.

Since our issue of last week posters etc., have been received announcing the coming of Miss Knox, the celebrated elocutionist, accompanied by several well known vocalists. The entertainment will take place in St. Alban's church on the 17th and 19th insts. The object of the entertainments being a charitable one—in aid of the funds of the Medicine Hat General Hospital—we hope to see the residents of the town turn out in goodly numbers both evenings.

Rubbers, overshoes, mitts, gloves and mocassins are being sold very cheap at F. C. Baker's.

The cricketers of the town are issuing invitations to their friends and patrons for a social hop on Friday evening, the 14th inst.

Mr. Betts is taking a prominent position among the speakers of the House, his speeches being reported in the leading Territorial papers.

Mr. Betts' touching appeal to the Assembly to allow Mr. Neff's bill for the establishment of Farmers' Institutes to be introduced was the cause of much merriment and filled a long felt want after the stormy debate on the beer question in the Assembly on Wednesday last.

We have been favored with a copy of the special railway number of the Lethbridge News, and it is certainly a credit to the Northwest. The number contains photo-lithographs of some of the leading citizens, views of the mines, the new shafts and buildings. The descriptive matter is also very interesting.

The Western World for October is largely devoted to illustrating Southern Alberta, there being three beautiful engravings of natural scenery, Lake's Lake, the Falls of the Old Man, and the Waterton or Kootenai Lakes, and ten illustrations of scenes in connection with coal company's works at Lethbridge, besides Mr. H. T. Galt's residence, the Lethbridge hospital and town of Lethbridge. The letter press descriptions are by Mr. Haultain, M.L.A., Mr. James Melville and Mr. C. C. McCaul, and are quite exhaustive. On the whole Southern Alberta is getting its share of judicious advertising.

Overcoats and pea jackets, galore, at Baker's.

Mr. W. Tait had a serious runaway accident on Saturday last. The team were left unbridled at a store door for a short time, when they bolted, being frightened by a passer-by. They had not got far when they collided with a horse and buckboard, the pole of the wagon striking the horse on the shoulder and cutting its way in over a foot. Both horse and buckboard were completely turned over, and the latter badly smashed up. The team continued on their way and arrived at their stable with the pole and front wheels of the wagon. Mr. Tait took the injured horse to the young man's hands, had the buckboard repaired and gave him $80 cash to console him. A rather expensive "spit" to William.
